American Embassy,
Tokyo, Japan.
June 15, 1953.

Dear Miss Corr:

Over the weekend two telegrams were received from our American Consul General in Hong Kong paraphrases of which are attached.

In brief American Consul General Harrington would like the answer to the following questions:

0 ✓ 30
25th

26th

26th
A.M.

1. Would Mrs. Roosevelt like to meet the American Community on the afternoon of the 25th?
2. Would she prefer a Chinese dinner instead of the cocktail-buffet following the UN meeting on the evening of the 26th?
3. Would Mrs. Roosevelt like to accept General Aired's invitation to visit the Chinese border? If so would she prefer the afternoon of the 25th or the morning of the 26th?

If you will call us or indicate on the carbon of this letter Mrs. Roosevelt's wishes we will send your reply to American Consul General Harrington.

Sincerely yours,
